prime favorite delineator o stern characters is undoubtedly G Anderson of the Essanay company whose storily manhood fairly vibrates with the vim and vigor of outdoor life. He is depicted in this superb picture as the savior of the life of an old settler whose horse had given out and the nearest one to be seen was taken to replace it, without the consent of the owner. How he accomplishes this the owner. How he accomplishes this is the theme of the picture and keeps the patrons absorbed in thought until

Miss Florence Turner, the "only" lorence, is seen in a convulsing amedicatia entitled Susia to Susann comedicate entitled Susia to Susanne, n which she clearly proves that there a much in a name and that fine feathers win fine birds. Her personality fairly bubbles in this bright film offerture and she truly lives up to her reputation of "the woman with a hundred with many thrilling moments which are emplemented by exceptional act-ius and beautiful scenery.

AT THE AUDITORIUM TODAY.

A special two-reel Broncho film will own today especially for the chil-and it promises to be one of the dren, and it promises to be one of the most interesting and exciting pictures seem here in a long time. It is entitled this Squaw and tells the story of a gentleman from the east who falls out with his sweetheart and decides to go west. There he falls in love with an Indian squaw whom he marries and Indian squaw whom he marries and later he figures strongly in a very exciting Indian insurrection and of course proves himself a hero.

There are also three first class vandeville numbers on today's bill, a particularly entertaining one for the children will be Snowie Maybelle, in child initations. The old Norwich repertoire favorite, Miss Leigh De Lacy, has been secured at considerable expense to appear here at this house as a special attraction for Christmas week. Her Dear here at this house as a special attraction for Christmas week. Her suggement will start at the Monday madine next week and close Christmas night. This week is positively bloom to be be a suggested to the suggested of the s Miss De Lacy's last in a small time theater, as she starts on a long engagement in the high priced vaudeville houses on Dec. 30, just one week after she appears here. Another act personally known to the minagement is Jecome and Lewis, who will also be on Monday's bill, and will give excellant satisfaction. Jack Lynch, an eccentric dancer, will complete the fine bill.

Village Lyceum Celebrates Anniversary by Giving Entertainment for Benefit of Rock Nook Home.

The Village Lyceum celebrated its first anniversary in a very entertaining manner Thursday evening, when it provided a varied programme in Pirecen's half for the benefit of the Rock Nook Children's Home. The liave you had baby a photogram of the provided a varied propriate with the provided as a proposal of the provided as a proposal of the provided as a provided Rock Nook Children's Home. The opening was a serenade given by members of the German band, Ellis Bentley, Roscoe Bentley, Jason Kingstey, John Proctor and George Proctor, under the leadership of Bandmaster Peter Van-derwaart. When the home made in-struments got tuned up there was some music, even of the first sound to some music, even of the first sound to come out was a daschmund fresh from Germany. The handmaster composed a song that made the introduction a hit of the evening, and with the assistance of the other members in their street parade made the people anxious for the Buttermilk Surprise Farty, which was ready, with the living room scene at the home of a couple of newlyweds, Reuben and Sally Simpkins. The se-genity of the scene was broken by the Reuben and Sally Simpline. The servenity of the scene was broken by the appearence of the house warmers—

A peep into an up-to-date bathreem

is only less refreshing than the bath itself. During the summer you will the more look to the bath for bodily comfort. I will show you samples and plans of the porcelain and other tubs and give you estimates for the work of putting them in in the best manner from a samitary standpoint—and guar. from a sanitary standpoint-and guar-
